AUCTION DETAILS AND SATURDAY NIGHT DINNER

Anyone wishing to make a donation towards the auction please do not hesitate to contact one of the people listed below. There is no item too small for a donation, as remember this is a family event and there may even be children who wish to look at getting a small item as well, to help this great cause. If everyone possible makes a donation towards the auction, it will all help.

There will be a spit roast organized for the Saturday night, so if you are hanging around for the auction, this will make dinner easy for everyone and a very social event. More details of the dinner and the cost will be put on the websites closer to the event. If you wish to attend this dinner, please indicate to the people listed below so it will give us some sort of idea for the catering and how we will go about the dinner.
